2014
Directory

NEBRASKA
OUR BEST TO YOU

Introduction

Dear Consumer:

There's nothing that tastes better than produce freshly picked from the garden. The taste of the recently husked corn, the smell of the plump strawberries, and the tenderness of the juicy tomatoes are just a few of the wide variety of products that are found in Nebraska. Our fertile soils have allowed Nebraska to be the home to some of the nation's best produce.

The Nebraska Department of Agriculture is proud to present this Farmers' Market Directory to help you locate Nebraska-grown produce. I encourage you to use this brochure throughout the spring, summer, and fall seasons. The farmers' markets found on the following pages are listed, alphabetically, by city.

If you're running an errand, taking a vacation, or just passing through Nebraska, I encourage you to pull off the road and visit some of our state's farmers' markets. Discover for yourself the quality of Nebraska's vine-ripened produce grown right here in our state's fertile soils. With over 80 farmers' markets located across the state, you'll likely pass by several of them. So, pull off the main highway and take a road less traveled so you, too, can enjoy the taste of Nebraska's fresh produce.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Greg Ibach". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Greg" and last name "Ibach" clearly distinguishable.

Greg Ibach, Director
Department of Agriculture
